

Things to think about your SOPHOMORE YEAR

___ Watch for events regarding the major selection process – the Undergraduate Deans Office, Center for Professional Development, Pre-Major Advising, Pre-Health Advising and others will offer and advertise programs that can support your selection process!

___ Watch for The Sophomore Year 2017/2018 in your Hinman box this fall.

STAY ON TRACK TO GRADUATE:

___ Declare a major (check the calendar on the Registrars website <http://www.dartmouth.edu/~reg/calendar>).

___ BannerStudent: DegreeWorks (Degree Audit) – be sure to scroll all the way down!

www.dartmouth.edu/bannerstudent

___ Review your degree audit and watch for your degree requirements including:

- o specific course requirements (including Writing, First-Year Seminar, and Language);
- o distributive requirements;
- o world culture requirements;
- o PE requirement.

___ Complete the language requirement

___ Complete the PE requirement (if you haven't already done so)

___ Complete the Swim Test

EXPAND YOUR ACADEMIC EXPERIENCES:

___ Cultivate relationships with faculty, staff, deans and administrators. Access them as mentors, and make sure they are getting to know you, so that you have someone to write letters of reference for you as you move forward in pursuing new opportunities.

___ Apply for off-campus programs (LSA/FSP) or Exchange Programs (remember – some have early deadlines): <http://ocp-prod.dartmouth.edu/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewDeadlines>

___ Apply for (if eligible) the Presidential Scholars Program:
