Week 7 Newsletter

Greetings to all in our wonderful first-generation community, at the end of one of the most traumatic weeks I have experienced in my three decades of direct involvement with Dartmouth. I have talked to many of you about your experiences on Wednesday night, and I had the honor of supporting some of you in the many hours I spent in the Hanover Police Station late that night. In my time there I saw men and women in military garb with automatic weapons, and I also saw students, faculty and staff rallying in remarkable ways to support each other. Whatever your perspective is on what happened that night and since, and however it has all affected you, I speak for the whole FGO team in offering our support. If it is resources you need, or connections to legal help, or advice, or snacks, or a shoulder to cry on, or just a hug, we are here for you. Community is so very important in these days, and we hope the FGO and its many communities can offer you at least some of what you need.

- Jay Davis
