BLAZING PATHWAYS: KEYNOTE SPEAKER

The keynote speaker for AAPIHM this year will discuss issues revolving around cultural, political and economic landscapes and how they impact the AAPI and Dartmouth communities. This conversation explores the different Elements of the AAPI experience and ways we can move forward as a community that blazes new pathways for change while supporting each other.

More details to follow.

ON THE GROUND: CONVERSATIONS ABOUT ASIAN ACTIVISM & JUSTICE

Join us for a panel and Q&A with activist-scholars Margo Okazawa-Rey and Rhacel Salazar Parreñas, and community organizers Elene Lam (from Butterfly, an Asian and migrant sex worker support network) and Betsy Yoon (from Nodutdol, a Korean diaspora community fighting against war, militarism, and colonization). They will be discussing the rise of anti-Asian violence, the importance of intersectionality and history, and the struggle for justice.

Open to the public.

REFLECTIONS: AAPIHM GALA

Reflections: AAPIHM Gala is the final Element of our AAPIHM 2021 celebration! In collaboration with Dartmouth Asian Pacific American Alumni Association (DAPAAA), this year's Gala will be a virtual commemoration of our graduating students and their accomplishments. Join us to reflect on the past year, hear speeches from notable alumni, and welcome graduating students into the alumni community!

elements

Asian American Pacific
Islander Heritage Month

Elements, n. A constituent part. Everything is composed of distinct pieces: our communities, our relationships, ourselves. Every part is unique, and all of them together form a unified whole.
