Let There Be Peace on Earth

Text: Sy Miller, Jill Jackson, Jan-Lee Music

Acc. by Diana Kodner

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.
With love for one another, family all are we.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now.
With every step I take, let this be my solemn vow;
To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally!
Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

DARTMOUTH COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT 2021

ABOUT THE SERVICE

The Baccalaureate Service, conducted under the auspices of the William Jewett Tucker Center for Spiritual and Ethical Life, is a formal component of the College's annual Commencement celebrations. Centered in Rollins Chapel, the inclusive, contemplative and joyful service is open to graduates, their families and guests, and other members of the College community.

The Baccalaureate Service provides a reflective spiritual experience at this significant time of transition in the lives of graduates and their families. Recognizing the tapestry of faith, philosophical, and spiritual paths that are woven into the College's contemporary life, the service reflects many different lenses and voices of the Dartmouth student journey.

Music, prayers, readings, and other contributions to the service represent the breadth of questions and meaningful connections cultivated through study, dialogue, and practice. Campus religious and spiritual leaders who work with student groups begin the service with words of prayer and blessing.

SACRED TEXTS

CATCH YOUR FIRE...DON'T KILL
HOLD YOUR FIRE...DON'T KILL
LEARN YOUR FIRE...DON'T KILL
BE THE FIRE...DON'T KILL

Catch the fire and burn eyes
that see our souls:

WALKING.

SINGING.

BUILDING.

LAUGHING.

LEARNING.

LOVING.

TEACHING.

BEING.

Hey. Brother/Brotha. Sister/Sista.

Here is my hand.

Catch the fire... and live.

live.

livelive.

live.

- Bodhisattva Vows

beings numberless

vow to liberate

faults without end

vow to overcome

wisdom all pervading

vow to learn

awakened way unsurpassed vow to embody

[A person] should attend to three aims of life in such a way that they support, rather than hinder each other. In his youth he should attend to profitable aims (artha) such as learning, in his prime to pleasure (kama), and in his old age to dharma and moksha.

- Kamasutra 1.2.1-1.2.4, Translated by Patrick Olivelle

Have they not looked at the sky above them: how We built it and adorned it with stars? As for the earth, We spread it out and placed upon it every type of pleasant plant - as an insight and reminder to every servant who turns to Allah.

- Qur'an 50:6 - 8

BACCALAUREATE SPEAKER

Kiva R. Wilson '04,

Senior Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Material

Kiva works collaboratively with internal employees and external clients to design and implement tailored strategies that lead to more diverse, inclusive, and high-performing organizations. She is an experienced practitioner with more than 16 years of DE&I strategy and implementation experience.

She joined Material in January 2021 from Paradigm Strategy, a leading DE&I consulting firm that works with clients such as Twitter, Slack, the NFL, and The New York Times. She previously spent six years at Facebook as one of the company's first hires in its D&I department. She quickly climbed to lead Facebook's D&I Talent Management with a focus on growing and retaining historically underrepresented employees. Prior to Facebook, Kiva served as the Head of Diversity and National Outreach at The Peace Corps, where she developed and implemented its integrated diversity outreach strategy.

She is a graduate of Harvard University and Dartmouth College, and she currently serves on Dartmouth's Review Board for Inclusive Excellence and the dev/color Advisory Board. A South Carolina native, she currently lives in Oakland, CA with her wife and son.
