Can we say it again? We are so excited you are joining our community and look forward to guiding you along the way!

In this “welcome packet” are resources and worksheets that will support your course election and curricular and co-curricular explorations.

You will find:
- Fall term course election documents: from the Undergraduate Deans Office and the Office of the Registrar.
- Academic Planning worksheets: provide a place for reflection as well as a guide for your first year at Dartmouth, from the Undergraduate Deans Office.
- Get Involved worksheet: jump start your thinking about co-curricular experiences, from Student Involvement.
- A glowstick: you’ll find out why soon! Don’t activate it yet.

New Student Orientation (NSO) starts today and will go through Sunday, September 13. Your complete schedule can be found on the New Student Orientation Canvas site.

Details for today, including meeting links, are posted on Canvas. Going forward, the Canvas site will be updated daily with the information you need to complete each day’s programming.

It is critical that you are checking the Canvas site regularly.

Please email new.student.orientation@dartmouth.edu immediately if you are having trouble accessing Canvas.

We know this isn’t the start to college that you were expecting. Despite the new environment in which we will be living and learning, supporting your transition to Dartmouth remains our primary goal.

We are here for you throughout each step of your journey. We can’t wait to meet you!

Welcome to Dartmouth!
