Things to think about your SOPHOMORE YEAR

Watch for events regarding the major selection process – the Undergraduate Deans Office, Center for Professional Development, Pre-Major Advising, Pre-Health Advising and others will offer and advertise programs that can support your selection process!
STAY ON TRACK TO GRADUATE: Declare a major (check the calendar on the Registrars website http://www.dartmouth.edu/~reg/calendar).
BannerStudent: DegreeWorks (Degree Audit) – be sure to scroll all the way down!

Review your degree audit and watch for your degree requirements including:
o specific course requirements (including Writing, First-Year Seminar, and Language);
o distributive requirements;
o world culture requirements;
o PE requirement.
Complete the language requirement
Complete the PE requirement (if you haven't already done so)
Complete the Swim Test
EXPAND YOUR ACADEMIC EXPERIENCES:
Cultivate relationships with faculty, staff, deans and administrators. Access them as mentors, and make sure they are getting to know you, so that you have someone to write letters of reference for you as you move forward in pursuing new opportunities.
Apply for off-campus programs (LSA/FSP) or Exchange Programs (remember – some have early deadlines): http://ocp-prod.dartmouth.edu/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewDeadlines
