

SVPP Objective & Outcomes

Our overarching objective is to reduce harmful behavior (sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, harassment, etc.) by increasing positive behavior.

The curriculum is designed to empower students to prevent harm by cultivating and strengthening their interpersonal skills and self-efficacy to:

1. Develop Positive Relationships & positive Sexual behavior (PRS)
2. Use their Power in positive ways to foster Equity & Belonging (PEB)
3. Check-in & step-in thru Bystander Intervention, across the spectrum of harm, to prevent sexual violence (BI)
4. Use Resources, if needed, & Support those who have been impacted by sexual violence (e.g. sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, and harassment) (RS)

SVPP Evaluation

Currently, there is very little academic research looking into the types of interventions that prevent sexual violence so Dartmouth has partnered with experts in sexual violence prevention research and evaluation, from Prevention Innovations Research Center (PIRC) at the University of New Hampshire (UNH) to study the SVPP. Students will interact with the evaluation by participating in the annual Culture, Behavior, & Experiences (CBE) survey, pre- and 6-week post training assessments, among others, and will have the opportunity to opt in or out of the academic research contributing to the body of science and prevention strategies at other institutions.

Get Involved with SVPP

Students are an integral part of the design, development, and implementation of SVPP and there are lots of ways to be involved, that range based on students' area of interest, time availability, compensation need, and skill-set.

- Student Facilitators
- Student Advisory Board (SAB)
- Internships
- Survey participation
- SAB Interviews

Positive Relationship & Sex Canvas Site

All students are invited to the optional self-paced Positive Relationships & Sex site on Canvas. This site was developed with students to provide comprehensive, inclusive, and centralized information and resources about sexual health, sexuality, and positive friendships and relationships. Here you can find answers to some common questions many people have about sex, sexuality and relationships!

First-Year Experience

The SVPP curriculum was intentionally designed and developed through research and with the help of Dartmouth students. The First-Year Experience (FYE) is an introduction intended to ensure all incoming students are on the same level and can build on this foundation throughout their time at Dartmouth. First-Year trainings are facilitated by upper-level students and occur each term. First-years are pre-registered for all of their components and can change their session date/time in the SVP portal on DartHub.

First-Year Experience Required Components:

- Culture, Behavior, and Experiences (CBE) survey - not required
- 1. Vector Solutions: Sexual Assault Prevention (SAP) online course
- 2. Orientation: Introduction to Sexual Violence Prevention at Dartmouth
- 3. Resources & Support 1 (RS-1)
- 4. Positive Relationships & Sex 1 (PRS-1)
- 5. Bystander Intervention 1 (BI-1)
- 6. Power, Equity, & Belonging 1 (PEB-1)

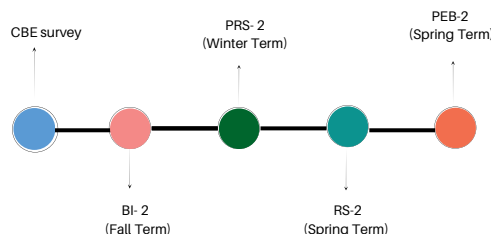

Sophomore-Year Experience

The SVPP Sophomore-Year Experience (SYE) is application focused and intended to build on the foundational knowledge and skills cultivated in the SVPP FYE. Sophomores will practice applying the SYE material to their own lived experiences factoring in their impact on others, and the complexity and nuances they often encounter. Sophomores will need to register for components each term through the SVP portal on DartHub.

Sophomore Year Required Components:

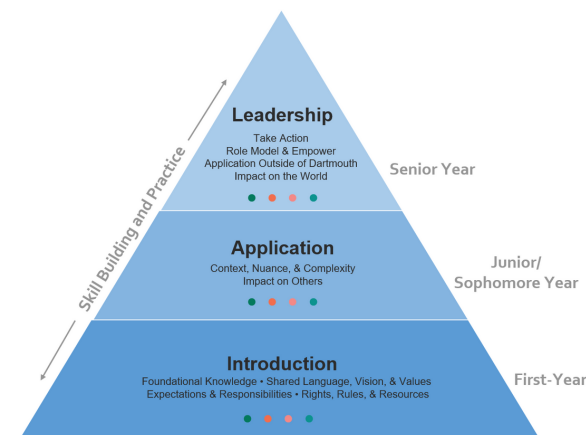

- Culture, Behavior, and Experiences (CBE) survey - not required
- 1. Bystander Intervention 2 (BI-2)
- 2. Positive Relationships & Sex 2 (PRS-2)
- 3. Resources & Support 2 (RS-2)
- 4. Power, Equity, & Belonging 2 (PEB-2)

Junior & Senior Year Experience

The SVPP Team and students are in the early stages of designing and developing the Junior & Senior Experiences.

Developmental Curriculum

The SVPP curriculum is:

- Focused on active skill-building and positive assets
- Research based, theory-driven, and culturally relevant
- Timed with students' intellectual, cognitive, and social development
- Inclusive of varied teaching methods to account for different learning styles

Frequently Asked Questions

WHY DO I HAVE TO DO THIS?

- Unfortunately, most people are or will be affected in some way by sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, or harassment, and that's not ok.
- This is a cultural problem not just at Dartmouth, but nationally and globally. If every one of us learned and used the skills to prevent harm before it occurred, we could create a better and safer Dartmouth, and a better and safer world.
- The skills acquired through the SVPP are not only useful at Dartmouth, but are intended to be transferable to students' personal and professional lives long after Dartmouth. Changing culture starts with us, all of us, changing one behavior at a time.

IS THIS REALLY MANDATORY?

- Yes. The SVPP is part of the undergraduate Dartmouth experience and required for all students. The FYE is also a pre-requisite to participate in Greek Life. Students who do not complete their requirements will be in violation of our Community Standards and receive a conduct sanction.
- If a student needs additional time to engage with a component or have concerns about participating in any SVPP component for personal reasons, please contact SVPP@dartmouth.edu to make arrangements.
